POLICY STATEMENT

In the course of carrying out their academic and administrative responsibilities, it is frequently necessary for an officer of National University of Health Sciences (NUHS) to positively identify an individual on campus. For that reason, all students are required to have a current University identification card in their possession whenever they are on campus and to produce it on request by any officer of the University.

Procedures

All NUHS (University) students are issued I.D. cards at the beginning of their first trimester of attendance.

Cards are updated yearly and must be turned in to the Office of Student Services prior to any stop out, withdrawal, or involuntary separation.

Lost cards will be replaced for a nominal fee. Contact the Office of Student Services for further instruction.
